Eight miles and a half & seventy Rods

Stones

Twenty miles one Quarter & Fifty

Connecticut River

Arlington
[Winchester N.H.]

May ye 10th 1733 Then Surveyed the Land at Connecticut River Granted by this Great & General Court ye 4th May 1733 for a Township

Also a Staple Tree the Southwesterly corner Pitchers Stone of said Land to be the Northwest corner

Then Running up the said Connecticut River Northerly taking in two Islands, Course as Stones then South six miles one Quarter then West Two miles one Quarter to a Pitchers Stone Eighteen and an half degrees west Three Pitchers marked then North one mile Stones then West three miles & three Quarters Allowed about one Rod in Swamp

There Allowed 739 Acres for Barrens Also for Roads & Ponds

Boston April 29th 1735 Then Surveyed the Land Granted to the Settlers of Township at Rivers Ammonoosuck Grosvenors Pond Upper Ashuelot Pond & Ashuelot River in the County of Hampshire Beginning at a Pitchers Stone from thence North Forty Degrees West Two miles to a Black Ash Tree from thence North Forty Degrees West to an Great Pine Tree by the First mentioned Pond Also Sixty Acres Allowance

May ye 10th 1733